

Elephants

Daisy

Elephants are a large mammal. Elephants have a long trunk. They often live in Africa or India.

Where They live

Some elephants live in Africa and some live in Asia. They can be found in scrub forests and rainforests. Also in the day it is really hot but in the night it is really cold.

What do they look like?

Elephants that are Asian are slightly wrinkled. They have two round domes in their heads. Elephants' backs are rounded. They have two long tusks. Elephants are large mammals.

They have two big floppy ears. Elephants can be different colors.

Elephants

What they eat and drink

80% of an elephant's day is spent feeding. They eat grasses, small plants, bushes, fruit, twigs and tree bark. They drink a bath full of water a day. Elephants love bananas. Elephants don't eat meat. Elephants absolutely love water.

Fun facts

Did you know that baby elephants suck on their trunks for comfort. Elephants use their trunks to shower. They are big mammals. They can go up to 7-11 feet tall! They don't eat meat. Elephants are scared of logs. Elephants have very good memories. When elephants are sad they cry. Elephants are very emotional and squeal when happy.