

TIGERS!

Mattilda

Tigers are wild species. And could be dangerous. Find out here about different types of tigers. Tigers are carnivores. And usually stripey.

The Nature hunt!

When tigers are distressed they walk up and down. Tigers leap out of their hiding spot and crouch there pray down and eat them.

Different tigers!

Did you now there are different tigers and you will find them out today they are panthera tigers, Bali tiger, Sumatran tiger, Xalman tiger, amur tiger, Malayan tiger,

Tigers!

Tigers are the largest member of the cat family. Weighing over 200kgs. They have loads of stripes. And are black and orange. They love to run and be free in the wild. and some times can be dangerous.

What food do they eat?

The different food they eat are boars, pigs, Bears, buggals, lizard, crabs, dears and elephants. They have teeth like blazers. And everything they eat are carnivores they some times get food for there baby if there not in captivity.

Tiger

Picture