

DAVID SLAYS THE GIANT, GOLIATH!

Written by: [Sydney, William, Annabella, Zack]

A giant called Goliath has been shouting for 40 days and 40 nights. "Come out and fight you cowards."

Meanwhile a boy called David was making his way to the war site. Everyone wanted King Saul to fight the giant. But he was a coward because he knew God wouldn't be on his side. David said he would fight the Giant and everyone laughed at David because he was only a small boy.

David took the challenge anyway. Goliath laughed aswell. But when David killed the Giant with one stone from his sling shot everyone cheered. David stood on the giant in victory.

The philistines ran away in fear. Saul's army chased after them and the battle was won thanks to David and his trust in God.
