

GIANT GETS KILLED BY A BOY!

Written by: [Fin, Harry, Max, Isabel]

In the city of Israel a group called the Philistines challenged the Israelites to a battle. It went on for 40 days and 40 nights. No one wanted to fight with Goliath because he was a giant and very strong. Not even King Saul would fight Goliath. After 40 days, David (who was a young shepherd boy) volunteered to kill Goliath. Everybody thought Goliath would win but King Saul gave David a chance. David found Goliath who shouted, 'Come here boy while I kill you!' David chose a stone and put it in his slingshot. Swinging the stone faster and faster, David took aim. Goliath was laughing and started to run towards David getting ready to launch his spear. Suddenly, the stone was released and hit the giant right in the middle of his forehead...killing him instantly. Saul's army chased the Philistine army away and finally the battle was over!

The people cheered for David and carried on their shoulders. This young is now a hero.
