

STREET PARTY STRIKES

By Max Halsall

Recently, Halsall St Cuthbert's CE primary school had a street party for their 100th birthday! The teachers, staff and some parents helped to make the party amazing.

Today there are over 20 staff. There are 156 pupils who are learning: maths, science, art, spelling, handwriting, literacy, history, PE, RE, ICT and Spanish. The head teacher, Mr Scholes, said: "The school is better than ever. We are delighted to celebrate our 100th birthday."

The school has been built a couple of times before. The first was in 1593, the second was in 1861 and the current building in 1904. The first school was connected to Halsall church. The second was next to the graveyard. The current building is connected to the church by Bishops Walk. The school is originally made for 320 people but they only have 156 people in now.

The school is amazing as it will always be. The school will and is fantastic.
